THE SALE OF LIQUOR ON SUNDAY. - Mayor Smith considering it his duty, and deeming it important that semething should be done to prevent the sale of Equar in this city on Sun day, has called a meeting of the City Council to night for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the matter. The following is the communication of the Mayor which will be read before the City Council to-night:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 21, 1880. to the Hogorable the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN,-I have called your honorable body tegether to consider a very important matper. The Logislature of our State passed on March 8, 1880, "an act to amend and revenuet sec. 19 of chap 7 of the criminal laws, approved March 14, 1878, in relation to violations of the Sabbath day," which amendment reads as follows: "No bar room, saloon or other place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, shall be opened and no interiesting bitters or other drink shall be sold in any bar room, restaurant saloon, store or other place from 12 o'clock on each and every succeeding Monday morning, and any person than $10 nor more than $500, provided that any city having a ropula isnot 10,000 and upwirds, and which by the provisions of its charber or any statute has power to regulate the sile of Laures or intexecting dricks within its from Fairfex this morning reports that Burnett

You will readily so that by the forming amendment the State Sauday liquor law is repealed as far as we are concerned. Alexandria having ten-thousand inhabitants and upwards. As to the power of the City Courcil to pass a feed Sanday Equor law, I would call your attention to section 14 of the charter of coreity, which reads as follows: "The City Cou ci shall have power to creet work houses, houses of correction and other public buildings for the teach of saidery, to have, make aut r pair he sircets and highways, to make all laws, which they shall once ize riquisite for the prescreation of the health of the ichabitants and for the regulation of the morals and police of

I think it is evident from section 10 of chap ter 228, that the State Sunday Equor law has been repealed as to Auxindria, and I think that it is equally evid at that the same eletion giv 6 to the Ci y Council the pozer to p s a heal Sundry Equar law, provided the charter of our city gives to Council the power to ecae; such a law. By reference to section 14 of the chatter we find that the City Couled has the power to make "all laws for the regulation of the motals and policy of the city."

Having the power, I would most respectfully

THE SHOOTING YESTERDAY .- Mention wis Burnett. It appears that Burnett wen', in shows of sixty winters, appeared at the office of company with a grocer, to Edwards' house, at one of the city magistrates yesterday afternoon the extreme upper end of Prince street, yesterday afternoon, to collect a bill, where they found Edwards in an intox cated amdition, who insisted that before paying the amount claimed by the greeny man, Barnett should leave the premises. Bu nett walked off, and Elwards went to the house of a Mrs. Struder, living near by, for the purpose, he said, of getting the money from his wife. In his absence, Euroett returned and undertook to drive a gri, the daughter of the said Mrs. Studer, out of the yard, applying some harsh epithets to her. to which Mrs. Struder took exceptions, and celled on Burnett for an explanation, when a sort of fight ensued, in which Mrs. Struder and one of her daughters received, in the language of some of the spectators, "a good shaking." During the scuffl, Edwards appeared on the scene with a trick in his hand, and, throwing it at Burnett, struck him on the shoulder. Burnett warned Elwards that if he threw at him again he would kill him, but he [Eiwards] did not heed the warning, and, while in the te: of throwing another brick, Burnett drew his pistol and fired, the ball striking Elwards in the upper part of the forehead, coursing around Saturday night of the week until suprise of the the curve of the skull and lodging in the top of the head, it fle icg a painful, though not seriviolating the provision of this see ion shall to ous, wound. JERSEY CHY, N. J., July 21 .- At 5 o'clock this morning the elisson surrounding the deep well leading to the entraces of the fludson river tunce', in course of construction at the foot of 16th street in this city caved in, carrying with it an immense quantity of earth .-I wenty one men were haried; seven were soon after taken out alive and 14 remained underneath. all of whom perished.

The water from the river flowed in rapidly and the steam fire engines were set to work to, it possible, save those who might still be alive from drowning. The workmen resided in the vicinity of the tunnel and a very large and excited clowd of persons soon congregated.

The night gang of 30 men, including Ass't. Superintendent Woodward and two firemen entered the shaft at midsight, the hours of work for this gang being from 12 to 8 o'cleck. The depth of the shate is 65 feet, and while most of the men were employed at the bottom of the shot, about one-third of the gang was engaged on the brick wall of the arch 25 feet higher. I was the latter 1922d, who were all brick layers, that escaped, except two. The main arch of the tuncel ruos out from the shaft a distance of about 3) feet when it opens into the two distinct arches that are to form the tuntel. Through some pegligence of the men it is supposed the sir lock was not properly adjusted when the precess of shifting commenced. The brick wall consecting the two arches give way and the water rushed into the cays.
